Every ski season brings the temptation of cool new gear for the slopes. Here's what's hot for 2008-09. Some items may be available locally. See Web sites for more details.

You could even say it glows

Track your kids in the dark when they're wearing Spyder's new glow- in-the-dark, waterproof and breathable Boy's Regime or Girl's Impulse jackets. The EnerGlo luminescent fabrics should glow for more than three hours after 10 minutes in the sun or artificial light. Regime, $275, and Impulse, $278; www.spyder.com.
